SPECIAL NOTES

- The B.S. in IMC requires 124 hours (over 41 three credit hour classes) and 42 of these hours (or 14 three credit hour classes) must be taken at the advanced level (300 level or above). 300-level required courses from the degree program are included in the 42 hours.
- The IMC major requires at least 33 hours (or 11 three credit hour classes) of Journalism/IMC courses.
- A grade of "C" or higher is required for all JOUR, IMC, and business minor courses (except Accy 201), and each course may only be attempted a maximum of two times. A third attempt will only be granted by an approved appeal.
- By completing the requirements for the IMC major, students also fulfill a minor in Business Administration.
- Some electives require a specified MacBook Pro. Go to meek.olemiss.edu for more information.
- Honors students should refer to the prescribed honors curriculum set by the Sally McDonnell Barksdale Honors College.

Journalism/IMC Electives: Students need at least 124 hours (over 41 three credit hour classes) to graduate. To meet that requirement, in addition to core classes, courses may be chosen from any other courses/subjects offered in other schools and/or departments on campus. When choosing electives, advanced electives are suggested because it helps meet the advanced-level requirement. See catalog for pre-reqs and refer to MyOleMiss for an updated list of semester courses.
